

Lavrion - Lavrion

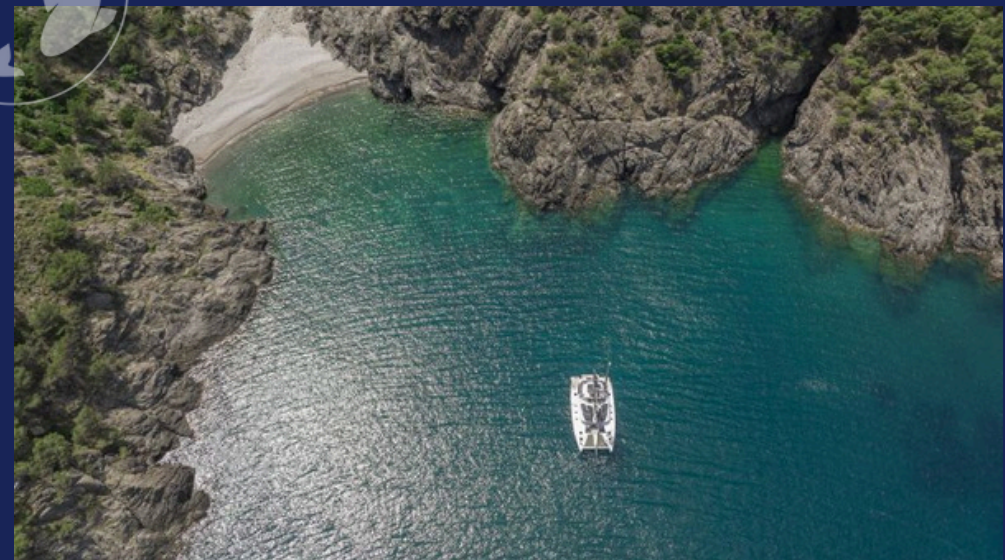

SAILING WEEK ON CYCLADES

7 days program

Lavrion- Kythnos- Syros - Mykonos - Tinos -Kea - Lavrion

Greece is one of the most popular yachting destinations in the world. This is due to the diversity of numerous islands, the Mediterranean climate, unique natural landscape, crystal clear water, short comfortable itinerary, big choice of yachts, natural quality products, aromatic wines and hospitable locals.

Program

Saturday - transfer from airport to Port Lavrion, check-in on catamaran.

Sunday - Lavrion - Kythnos

Kythnos wears the standard blue and white colours of the Cyclades, has more than 350 snow white little chapels scattered around the island. It has more than 65 beaches (the majority ending in off-road access tracks) and picturesque villages with the narrow cobbled streets, the white-washed houses, squares, churches and windmills.

Monday - Kythnos - Syros

Syros Island combines culture, entertainment and religion in the most harmonious way. It used to be one of the most significant islands in cycladic civilisation. Nowadays, the island is world-renowned for its rich cultural tradition with events that take place in Ermoupolis, the island's capital

Program

Tuesday - Syros - Mykonos

Mykonos has been known as the island of the winds, and it's located in the heart of the Cyclades group. Its fame has spread across the world, as a cosmopolitan and luxurious holiday destination. Bathed in the bright sunlight of the Aegean by day, she dresses in charm and mystery by night

Wednesday - Mykonos- Tinos

Tinos, dubbed by philosopher Cornelius Castoriadis as the "handmade island," is one of the rising island destinations in the Cyclades. An ideal destination for nature lovers, architecture and art aficionados or gastronomy enthusiasts!

Program

Thursday - Tinos -Kea

The island of Kea (aka Tzia) is a famous and charming Cycladic island with age-old traditions and interesting history. Its landscape will catch your attention with its green fields, high hills, vineyards, olive groves, ravines, coves and secluded beaches.

Friday - Kea - Lavrion

Saturday - check-out at 9:00

The route may change due to weather conditions, in case of the strong wind we could go to Argo- Saronic Gulf, but this will not affect the incredible beauty of the entire holidays.
